"Making Care Contagious" is the mission of Andy's student leadership programs. Combining motivational comedy, powerful stories, pep rally energy, and insights for classroom & leadership success, Andy will make an IMPACT at your conference! He is based in London, Ontario, Canada, a two hour drive east of Detroit.

Andy was an active student leader who also excelled at academics throughout his school career. In middle school, Andy was Student Council Vice President and the Top Academic Male Graduate. As Student Council President in high school, Andy led his school to win "Most Spirited in Canada" in MOGA (Most Outrageous Group Activity), an annual contest run by Much Music (Canada's MTV). He was also valedictorian of his graduating class. At King's College, Western University (London), Andy was Orientation Week coordinator, the "Most School-Spirited Graduate" of 1993 and on the Dean's honour list for four years, while completing his degree in History & Geography.

Since graduating, Andy has been recognized by both his high school and university for his contributions. Laurier High School in London named him its "Inspiring Excellence" award winner as its most outstanding graduate since it was founded in 1966. King's College chose Andy as its Alumni of Distinction in 2014, an annual award given to only 18 people as of 2016. Andy was also honoured by the Rotary Club of London as a "Paul Harris Fellow" in 2012 for his work as a community leader. Andy has keynoted Rotary's youth leadership conference for the area of southwestern Ontario and eastern Michigan every year since 2003.

Andy still lives in London, Ontario, Canada and loves to return to his alma maters. He speaks to the 10th graders and the graduating class of his high school every year.
